Do that by making a sales web page for the new ebook, but don't embrace a worth on that page. Instead, add a number of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a value to your ebook.

Another technique is to check out costs by creating a variety of duplicate sales pages with different prices on every page. Make sure your sales copy is exactly the identical on each web page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for each page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum worth is.

In the end, if you happen to've written a e-book that solves a problem or presents a new method, your e-book will herald each traffic and profits.
